INSIDE THE NUMBERS

The stats that stole the show

INDEX has been at the heart of MENA's vibrant interiors scene, serving as a truly global platform unveiling the latest innovations in the interior design and fit-out industry, all conveniently gathered under one roof. This exhibition connects international manufacturers with the region's most influential buyers, including interior designers, architects, and retailers.

It was well-organized and filled with valuable opportunities. It offered great exposure, meaningful networking, and a strong industry presence, making it a worthwhile experience with promising follow-up potential.

It was a real pleasure being on stage at INDEX Design Talks, sharing my thoughts on the importance of Visual Storytelling in design and how it can completely shift how we think, feel, and experience a space. It was a full house, and the exchange was unforgettable.
